SCCADVASA

About the Presenter, Olga Phoenix, MPA, MA

Outreach Advocacy Coordinator SCCADVASA

Olga Phoenix is a scholar, writer, and an advocate, dedicated to social change and interpersonal violence prevention. She recently joined SCCADVASA as an Outreach Advocacy Coordinator, working to identify and address the needs of historically underserved survivors of sexual and domestic violence and their children, especially immigrant women, survivors with limited English proficiency, LGBTQ survivors, women of color, and survivors in rural communities.

Ms. Phoenix's professional experience is in developing, coordinating and delivering comprehensive training curriculum to strengthen advocacy and intervention services for survivors of domestic, sexual, dating violence and stalking. She has written and presented extensively on the subject of human trafficking; especially on sex trafficking in Russia, Indonesia, and child sex trafficking in the United States.

Ms. Phoenix graduated with a Masters of Public Administration and Nonprofit Management from the University of South Florida, Masters of Arts in Women's Studies from Florida Atlantic University, and is currently pursuing her PhD in Women's Spirituality and Healing from the California Institute of Integral Studies.
