BUILDING SAFER COMMUNITIES TOGETHER

2026

STANDING STRONG FOR SURVIVORS FOR 45 YEARS.

Dear Partner,

In 2026, the South Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault marks 45 years of standing strong for survivors across our state. For more than four decades, SCCADVASA has worked to strengthen systems, elevate survivor voices, and advance policies that promote safety, dignity, and justice.

This milestone reflects the progress we have made, but it also underscores the complexity of the work ahead. Survivors continue to face significant barriers to safety and stability, and addressing these challenges requires coordinated, sustained investment.

As a corporate partner, you are investing in stronger systems of support, safer workplaces, and healthier communities across South Carolina.

Why Partner With SCCADVASA

- Align your organization with a trusted statewide leader
- Demonstrate commitment to safety, wellbeing, and community impact
- Provide meaningful engagement opportunities for employees
- Access expert-led training and education for your workplace

Corporate Training & Education - Bring the Expertise to Your Team

SCCADVASA offers customized training designed to equip organizations with the knowledge and tools to respond to domestic violence and sexual assault in the workplace. These trainings are available through select partnership levels or as a standalone opportunity.

As we look ahead, we remain focused on strengthening the systems that support survivors and prevent violence in our communities.

We invite you to be part of this work.

Sara Barber, SCCADVASA Executive Director
